

Lesbian Gentle & Low Intermediate Croatia, 27 May – 3 June 2017

Holiday Details

The Dalmatian island of Brac lies off the coast from Split, threaded by lovely old mule tracks through olive groves and pinewoods. Ancient chapels and monasteries dot the island while along the rocky coast there are pebbly coves that invite a swim and small picturesque fishing resorts. Sutivan is one of these - built of famous Brac stone, and at night you can see the lights of Split across the water. Sutivan has no hotels, so we'll do as the Croatians do and stay in small apartments, all within walking distance of Pension Dora whose vine covered courtyard and restaurant/bar we will use as our focal point. Here we will share breakfasts, and meals on 4 evenings. On the 3 other evenings we'll eat out at seafront restaurants in smaller groups (these 3 meals are not included – from £12). There is also a good supermarket in Sutivan where you can buy most additional food and drink. The apartments are simple and typically Croatian, mostly with ensuite single rooms, and some with 2 single rooms sharing a bathroom and a small kitchen. Some have a shady terrace for relaxing after walking; some have sea views. Besides a choice of Gentle & Low Intermediate walks each day, (which often involve a swim stop!) we will also take a day off to enjoy the sea, hire a bike or sea kayak, visit Diocletian's Palace in Split, or simply relax with a book!

Price includes: 7 nights in ensuite twins (Full board except for 3 eve. meals; airport transfer & all walks transport. Single rooms available if you book early - £10 per night supplement ensuite, £5 single with shared bathroom.

Flights & Transfers – Flight to Split is not included We believe that this gives maximum flexibility and the best chance of getting a good price as well as the option to extend your stay. Flights must fit with the transfers below otherwise you will be responsible for your own transfer. To find suitable flights try www.skyscanner.net

What to bring – Gentle & Low Intermediate Croatia

- Walking boots - leather or waterproof fabric, broken in and comfy, with sufficient tread left for good grip. Walking sandals are great for the evening, but the terrain is often too rocky to walk in them during the day.
- Several pairs of walking socks. If your feet blister easily, try 2 thin pairs of coolmax to keep your feet cool.
- Waterproof jacket/trousers - rain can occur in September!
- Jellies or beach/swimming shoes - the beaches are quite stony and a bit sore on the feet
- Ear plugs - if you might be disturbed by church bells
- Insect repellent
- Extra fleece or sweater - for the evenings
- Shorts or lightweight walking trousers
- Walking tops - you may also want something long-sleeved in case you want to cover up from the sun.
- Day Pack - to carry water, towel, packed lunch, camera & other bits and pieces.
- Water flask or strong plastic water bottle, at least 1.5 litre capacity. A Platypus or similar water system is very handy.
- Sun screen, lip salve, sun glasses, sun hat, beach towel, swimming costume
- Walking poles - not essential, but very good if you have troublesome knees or difficulty with uneven ground.
- Cash in Kuna
- Up to date Passport, Flight Ticket/booking reference number, and this information sheet for contact numbers!

Non-essential, but they may be important to you!

Camera, spare film & spare battery, maybe binoculars, a mat to sit on during a drink stop. Torch and spare battery. This sheet for contact numbers in case you're held up getting to the airport! Phrase book, flower book. Mobile phone – good reception in Sutivan. Zinc oxide tape is great on your heels to prevent blisters (or Compeed blister treatment - in case you didn't put tape on in time!) Lightweight umbrella is great for the sun – either walking or propped over your head on the beach (well – I don't care what it looks like if it works!!) Favourite herb tea bags you might not be able to get in Croatia etc.
