By car: Whether driving North or South on the M5 or on the A303/A358 come off at Taunton, Junction 25, follow the signs for Minehead, which will take you along the A358, to Williton where you will bear left onto the A39 for Minehead. After about 6 miles, passing through the villages of Washford, Bilbrook and Carhampton, you will pass Dunster Castle on your left before turning left at the traffic lights onto the A396 and up into Dunster Village. As the road bears left into the High Street the octagonal Yarn Market is in the centre of the street. Turn in beside this building and park in front of reception to unload your luggage. There is free parking in the High Street or there are permits available from Reception for the Village Car Park.

By train: The nearest train station is Taunton which is 22 miles away. Taunton is on the main line from London and Birmingham.

From London: There are direct trains running approx every hour and taking approx 2hrs 30 mins.

From Birmingham: There are direct trains approximately every hour taking just over 2 hours.

From Manchester: There are direct trains taking approx 3hrs 30 mins.
